

Private Education

Good for Students • Good for Families • Good for America

% of 2011 graduates who went on to 4-year colleges --

Private High Schools - 64.3%

Public - 39.4%

Good for Students

Good for Families

% of parents who say their child's school is good or excellent --

Private School Parents - 91%

Public School Parents - 75%

Private Schools

Save Taxpayers

$50 billion/year

Good for America

Why choose a private school?

- quality academics
- focus on the whole person
- spiritual/ethical values

- safe environment
- caring teachers
- cooperative communities
- high expectations

- individualized attention
- welcoming to parents
- commitment to excellence

Discover more about religious and independent schools and find a private school in your area at www.capenet.org

CAPE | Council for American Private Education
Voice of America's Private Schools

www.capenet.org

Sources: College Rates - National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) Publication #2013-312; Parent Satisfaction - AP-NORC Poll on Parents' Attitudes on the Quality of Education (2013); Taxpayer Savings - CAPE.